FAITH IN ACTION: THE CARDIFF NIGHTSHELTER PROGRAMME

There are many global needs relating to poverty and homelessness where we can help through solidarity and financial support. But we mustn't forget the acute needs in our own community where we can help with a 'hands on' contribution.

The Cardiff Nightshelter Programme provides food and overnight accommodation for the homeless, throughout the winter months and is based at several church centres throughout the city. The organisers, Neil and Helen Phillips have kindly agreed to come and explain further about this programme to all those who already participate and/or have expressed an interest. The meeting will be held at St. Mary's Presbytery at 6pm on Tuesday 8th November. Please come along and find out more, speak to Deacon Maurice or Frs John, Andy and David so that we can take things

2nd Reading	462	Communion Prayer	464
Gospel	463

First Reading (2 Kings 5: 14-17) Naaman, a Syrian general, is encouraged by an Israelite servant girl to seek healing from the prophet Elisha. When Naaman and his entourage arrive at Elisha's house, he is affronted that the prophet does not deal with him directly and, instead, advises him through a messenger to bath in the river Jordan seven times and he will be clean. Once he submits to that advice, however, he is healed. His request for 'earth' to carry home with him indicates the commonly held perception that a god could only be worshipped within his own domain.

Second Reading (2 Timothy 2: 8-13) The necessity of endurance, in all seasons, is emphasised here. Christ suffered and died. Paul has, in turn, suffered and experienced real hardship on account of his service. The leaders of the Christian community cannot expect to share the inheritance of the risen Jesus, if they balk in the face of their own suffering. A saying or hymn, presumably familiar to early believers, is quoted approvingly. It spells out the consequences both of remaining faithful to Christ and, alternatively, of putting oneself first.

Gospel Reading (Luke 17: 11-19) The theme of leprosy re-appears in the gospel passage, paralleling Naaman's story. Here again, as with Naaman, the act of healing is not immediately obvious. It was in carrying out Elisha's instructions to bathe that he encountered healing. Similarly, it is in obeying Jesus' command to 'Go and show yourselves to the priests' that cleansing is experienced in the lives of the ten men. Just as Naaman went on to praise God, in the light of his healing, so the Samaritan leper, who becomes the focus of this gospel episode, praises God 'at the top of his voice'. Both are keen to express gratitude: Naaman, in his concern to offer a gift to the prophet, the Samaritan, in his readiness to fall at the feet of Jesus. Both are foreigners who, ultimately, confess their faith in the God of Israel.

There will be a collection for Missio/APF after all Masses next Sunday.

All parishioners, newcomers and visitors are very welcome to visit St Mary's Parish Hall for a cup of tea or coffee after 10am Mass today.

The 2nd Alpha meeting for 1st Communion Parents It was a really lovely experience to see parents from both parishes interacting with each other. Everyone seemed to have thoroughly enjoyed the experience. The food was really enticing with plenty of variety. It was just splendid; I went back for a few refills. The talk was on "Who is Jesus?" evidence of his historical existence and proof on his divinity Jesus made a number of claims that is God and did miracles to support his claim. Afterwards there were lively discussion in each of the groups. They were encouraging and uplifting. My thanks to the parents who attended; it's great to see you playing an active role in your child's sacramental preparation. I look forward to seeing you next week.

A number of people other than parents have asked if they can join the alpha programme. They will of course be most welcome.
